

The Binary Graffiti Club. Call for Participants. Volunteers wanted.

The Binary Graffiti Club Choir. Call to be involved.

Can you sing? Would you like to be part of something fun, arty, musical in London which will be made into to a short film?

The Binary Graffiti Club are looking for volunteers to take part in experimental vocal workshops led by artist Stanza and musician Richard Frostick.

We are looking for 30 people for three dates. ie three session of three hours.

Two session for rehearsal and one to film it.

The musical score will be composed of a series of binary codes extracted from a newly published book made from public contributions. All you have to do is turn up and sing, and take some instruction. The aim is to have fun creating music and make a piece of art (a film) which will be exhibited later in the year.

Requirements.

Participants must be over 16 and under 40.

No vocal experience needed but we need you to be up for it and prepared to experiment with your voice.

Participants will be filmed and asked your consent is given by attendance.

Participant will be asked to wear a binary hoody which will be provided (see picture)

No payment is available therefore volunteers only. Please come in black legging / black trousers and black shoes.

Dates and Times. There will be three sessions (Dates to be confirmed)

Venue: arebyte 117 Wallis Road. E9 5LN

Dates : Three evening session dates in September and October.
